

EuroMemo conference 2009 Workshop programme (15.9.09)

Workshop 1: Macroeconomics, finance and the crisis

Coordination: Trevor Evans, evans@hwr-berlin.de

Örjan Appelqvist	Keynes and Myrdal: Which kind of interventionism?
Eckhard Hein & Achim Truger	Financial crisis, global recession, economic policy reactions and long-run requirements for a Keynesian New Deal – The case of Germany
Marica Frangakis & John Grahl	EU policy initiatives in the financial regulatory and supervisory area
Dominique Plihon	Finance and the crisis

Workshop 2: The crisis and its social impact

Coordination: Diane Wehlau, wehlau@uni-bremen.de & Mahmood Messkoub, messkoub@iss.nl

Malcolm Sawyer	Financial crisis and inequality
Martin Schuerz	Wealth distribution and financial crisis
Janusz Tomidajewicz	Fault of distribution as primary factor of crisis of liberal capitalism
Antonios Roumpakis	Financial crisis and pension funds

Workshop 3: The EU and the crisis in the regions

Coordination: Miren Etxezarreta, metxezarreta@telefonica.net

Catherine Sifakis	From progress to backtracking on European Union. The role of states in economic and monetary integration
Jeremy Leaman	What price the loss of progressivity in taxation? Europe's failure and its consequences
Erinc Yeldan	Lessons of peripheral development in a speculative led environment: Turkey post- 2000
Jolanta Suspinska	How Poland was looking for theoretical and political arguments in its evasion from the global crisis. The role of social policy
Irina Curkina	Causes of economic crises in small transition countries: Case of Latvia

Workshop 4: Capitalism, ecology and restructuring

Coordination: Frieder Otto Wolf, FOW@snafu.de

Andrea Fumagalli/Stefano Lucarelli	Cognitive capitalism as a financial economy of production
Lutz Mez	Economics of nuclear power
Frieder Otto Wolf	The latent economics of EU environmental policies

Other papers submitted

Peter Custers
Jan Müter

The “new transatlantism”
Political economy